

Guy Martin Heads KDM Hire Cookstown 100 Line up

Hondas Guy Martin is just one of the many star names entered for the 95th Cookstown 100, which takes place on fri/sat,28th/29th April. Joining Martin in the impressive line up, will be Derek Sheils (Burrows Engineering Racing),Derek McGee, Michael Sweeney,2016 Man of the Meeting, Paul Jordan (Site Sealants Kawasakis) etc

Making a return to the road racing scene will be Local race team ;Gortreagh Printing/McAdoo racing who will have James Cowton on board. Cowton last week became the 2017 Laird of Croft, and scored a supersport win at the same meeting on the McAdoo ZX6 Kawasaki .

With the loss of MarTrain Yamaha team, it is a welcoming boost for road racing with the return of McAdoo Racing, who last had a full time presence on the road race scene in 2011!

For the McAdoo race Team, who live on the race circuit, Returning to the the KDM Hire Cookstown 100 with a full stable of Kawasaki machinery, and with James Cowton ,who featured prominently in last years Supertwin race at Cookstown, will reminisce the good old days of the mauve coloured machines around the Orittor circuit in the hands of Ian Hutchinson, Ryan Farquhar, Conor Cummins but to name a few.

With all classes oversubscribed, with the exception of moto 3,the organizing club expect to run something in the region of 18 races .

To Night, at the annual Press launch in the Royal Hotel, Cookstown, The Organizing club will announce another prominent rider, who will make his KDM Hire Cookstown 100 debut, and you can read all about it in to morrows edition of this newspaper.
