

Are you the next Miss Armoy?

ORGANISERS of the Armoy Road Races are calling on aspiring young women to enter this year's Harrigan Fuels Miss Armoy competition, which will take place on Thursday 27th July 2017 in the corporate hospitality marquee on the Hillside Road in Armoy.

The competition is one of the major highlights of Bike Week, with young women participating from all over the Causeway Coast and Glens. The lucky lady to be crowned Miss Armoy 2017 will serve as an ambassador for the club, where she will attend relevant events throughout the year.

This year, Bike Week runs from Sunday 23rd July until Saturday 29th July with the races taking place on Friday 28th July and Saturday 29th July 2017 finishing with the Roadside Kia 'Race of Legends'. The Armoy Road Races are part funded by Tourism Northern Ireland and the Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council.

Vice Chairman and organiser of Miss Armoy 2017, Trison McMullan said, “We’re very excited to open our search for the New Miss Armoy 2017. This is a great opportunity for one young lady to act as our ambassador and attend several events throughout the year. A firm fixture in the Armoy Road Races calendar, I’d like to call on all young ladies to enter the competition.

“The event has a set of guidelines, entrants need to be over 18 by Thursday 27th July and they require two sets of clothes – none of which will be swimwear! It’s a great night full of fun and of course, the winner and runners up must be enthusiastic, up for a challenge and willing to take part on Race Day on Saturday 29th July 2017.

“I’d also encourage visitors to the races to come along and support the event as it will be a great evening. There will be live music with the band, Roll the Dice, playing after our 2017 Miss Armoy has been crowned.”

The first four runner-ups will also be expected to appear at the Race Event on Saturday 29th July 2017, from 9.30am until the racing finishes in order to help out on the grid at the start of each race. Successful candidates who take part can be promised a platform perfect for pursuing a modeling career, especially with past winners including Miss Northern Ireland and Miss NW200.

Trison continues, “I’d like to take this opportunity to thank Harrigan Fuels, our main sponsor. They’ve continued to sponsor our Miss Armoy competition each and every year and without them we really wouldn’t have an event.

“I’d also like to thank all those who have donated prizes for the competition, which include; Pacemaker Photography, Beauty at Logans, Armada Bar and Restaurant, the Hedges Complex, Springwell Manor, Nutt Travel, The Scenic Inn, Beauty@Katrinas and Coleraine Flowers. Their support and generosity is invaluable and greatly appreciated by the Club.”

All entries must be in by 14th July 2017 but the sooner the better. Entry forms with full instructions can be downloaded from www.amrrc.com or visit the Miss Armoy 2017 Facebook page.

ENDS

For more information, please contact Jackie Logan at NakedPR. on 07730 065 005/028 9091 8676 or email jackie@naked-pr.com

Photo Caption:

Organisers of the Armoy Road Races are calling on aspiring young women to enter this year’s Harrigan Fuels Miss Armoy competition, which will take place on Thursday 27th July 2017. Pictured here is Miss Armoy 2016, Ms Colleen Dobbin with road racer William Dunlop after winning the First4Printing SupersportRace 1 in 2016.

Jackie Logan | Managing Director | NAKEDPR.